Background

The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB), a reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA)/Improving America's Schools Act (IASA), was signed into law on January 8, 2002. NCLB continues many of the goals set forth in IASA and incorporates additional principles and strategies for strengthening the pre K-12 academic environment. The measures included in NCLB require the following: 1) increased accountability for all responsible authorities - states, school districts, and schools; 2) greater school choice for parents whose children are attending low-performing schools; 3) more flexibility for states and LEAs in their use of federal education funds; and 4) a focus of resources on proven educational methods, particularly relating to early reading programs
