Continuation of State Health Benefits Coverage Under Cobra

State Health Benefits Program and School Employees' Health Benefits Program

EXTENDED COBRA BENEFITS

Under The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act

An extension of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) of 2009 provides for an expansion of the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) into 2010 and creates a fifteen-month, federal subsidy of COBRA premiums for certain involuntarily terminated employees.

The following is a brief description of the eligibility criteria and extended COBRA benefits provided under the ARRA.

- To be eligible for the COBRA premium subsidy, an individual must have been involuntarily terminated from employment on or after September 1, 2008 and prior to May 31, 2010. Qualifying dependents may also be eligible for a COBRA premium subsidy.
- Eligible individuals currently enrolled in COBRA (covered involuntarily terminated employees and qualifying dependents), will receive a COBRA premium subsidy for up to fifteen months that can begin no earlier than March 1, 2009. Eligible individuals are responsible for paying only 35% of the regular COBRA premium.
- Eligibility as an involuntarily terminated employee must be verified by the employer and indicated on the COBRA notice.
- Assistance eligible individuals whose continuation coverage was discontinued following the expiration of their nine-month subsidy period have the right to pay back premiums and be retroactively reinstated. To qualify for reinstatement, the individual should contact the Health Benefits Bureau of the Division of Pensions and Benefits immediately to arrange for the payment on any back premiums.
- Assistance eligible individuals who maintained continuation coverage by paying the full COBRA premium after the nine-month subsidy period will have their COBRA bill adjusted to reflect the subsidy amount. Individuals who reached the end of the reduced premium period before the subsidy extension will receive a credit for any overpayment due on a future bill.
- The provisions of the ARRA do not extend the period of COBRA coverage eligibility period. In most cases 18-months is the period of COBRA eligibility following termination of employment.
- Individuals with incomes over certain salary limits[1], who become eligible for another group health plan or Medicare, who voluntarily terminated employment, or who were involuntarily terminated for reasons of gross misconduct are not eligible for the subsidy.

[1] Individuals with annual income exceeding $145,000 per year, and couples with income exceeding $290,000 per year, are not eligible for the subsidy and will pay the full COBRA premium. The subsidy is also phased out starting at $125,000 for individuals and $250,000 for couples. Individuals who receive subsidies during a year in which they exceed these income limits will be required to repay the subsidy. Subsidy repayments are captured on the individual's federal income tax return. Individuals may also make a permanent election to waive the subsidy. It is not the employer's responsibility to verify the income of former employees.

Dear Employee and/or Dependent(s):

Your health care coverage under the State Health Benefits Program (SHBP) or School Employees' Health Benefits Program (SEHBP) terminates as shown below because of a change in employment status or dependent eligibility. The reason for the loss of coverage, the type(s) of coverage lost and the last day of coverage(s) are shown in the notice below. Under the provisions of the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA), you are entitled to continue your medical benefits with the group program for a limited time.

If you wish to continue coverage under the provisions of COBRA, you must enroll at this time. Otherwise, you will lose coverage and you cannot enroll later.

You may continue the group coverage(s) shown below under COBRA, at your own expense, for the time period shown in the COBRA Continuation Term or until one of the following conditions occur: (1) you voluntarily cancel your coverage; (2) you become covered under MEDICARE or another group plan after you elect COBRA coverage (Note: Exceptions are made if your other group has a pre-existing condition clause that affects you); (3) you fail to pay your premiums in a timely manner; or (4) your employer ends participation in the SHBP or SEHBP.

If you are retiring, you may be eligible for lifetime health and prescription drug coverage through the Retired Group of the SHBP or SEHBP. Consult your employer or the Division of Pensions and Benefits PRIOR to enrolling for health and prescription drug benefits under COBRA.

In considering whether to elect continuation of coverage under COBRA, you should take into account that you cannot enroll at a later date and that a failure to continue your group health coverage may affect your future rights under federal law. Please refer to Fact Sheet #30, Continuation of Coverage Under COBRA, for more information on your election of COBRA coverage.

If you wish to continue your group coverage under the provisions of COBRA, complete the application on the reverse side and send it to the Division of Pensions and Benefits, P.O. Box 299, Trenton, NJ, 08625-0299. If you elect to continue coverage, you will be enrolled so you have no break in coverage. After your application is processed (allow up to three weeks), you will be sent a letter of confirmation of enrollment indicating the beginning date(s) of your COBRA coverage(s) and the length of your COBRA eligibility. The Health Benefits Bureau will send you an invoice of premiums that are due for your coverage (this may include retroactive premiums).

You should make a copy of this notice and your completed application for your records prior to mailing the application and any required proof of dependency documentation to the Division of Pensions and Benefits. After mailing, if you do not receive the confirmation of enrollment identified in the preceding paragraph, you should contact the Division of Pensions and Benefits' Office of Client Services at (609) 292-7524 or by e-mail at pensions.nj@treas.state.nj.us
