5. TABLED - Resolution to approve the Middle School of Pleasantville to accept the implementation agreement from the Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID). AVID is part of the Middle's School SIP. The term of the agreement is from July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015. The program is being implemented to close the achievement gap by preparing all students for college readiness and success in a global society. AVID includes a Summer Institute component that will focus on leadership systems, instruction and culture. Teachers will receive an overview of how to develop a school culture that closes the expectation and opportunity gaps. The curriculum library is an essential part of the program that includes information that will teach students academic and social skills to help them develop habits and behaviors needed to succeed in a rigorous curriculum. It is required to have an AVID District Director (Carol Reynolds) who will be responsible for coordinating the implementation of the AVID secondary program according to the AVID methodologies and for facilitating the development of site conditions that ensure effective implementation of the program. The total cost to implement the AVID program for 2014-2015 school year is not to exceed $22,357.00.

The cost for the AVID program includes:

Membership/ license fee $3,485.00 account # 20-231-100-800-0000-545 (2013-2014 NCLB Title I)
